- Subscriptions are set each year at the A.G.M. and are due on 1st April. Unpaid subs as at 31st May, where no payment arrangements have been made with the Membership Officer (refer clause2), will incur the following:
    - A 10% penalty.
    - Playing rights removed along with handicap details until the subscription is paid in full, including the penalty charge.
2. Membership categories of Full Playing, Country and Nine Hole can pay by installments under the following conditions:
- Payment arrangements are to be made direct to the Membership Officer.

- A minimum of 25% must be made by 31 May.
- The balance can be paid by instalments providing the full subscription is paid by 30 November.
- A $20 administration fee will be added to the applicable subscription if this option is taken up.

3. Beginning golfers and those who have not been a member of any golf club for the last 5 years, will pay a half subscription during their first season. This is available to Full Playing, Country and Nine Hole categories.

4. Associate Membership. This category would provide the member the ability to maintain a handicap. They would pay affiliated green fee rates each time they played golf. The following conditions would apply:

- An Associate Member cannot have been a member of any other category the previous season (except Non-Playing).
- A member cannot exceed 5 years of Associate Membership
- If an Associate Member chooses to join either Full Playing, Country or Nine Hole, their sub would be discounted by 25% for that first season.

5. A member joining after 30 September will pay half the applicable sub for all categories.

6. A Summer Member who goes on to become a Full Playing member the following season, and hasn't been either a Full Playing, Country or Nine Hole member in the last three years, will have 50% of their Summer subscription deducted from the following season's Full Playing subscription.

7. At the discretion of the Committee, a golfer visiting the district may be admitted as a Part Member paying a subscription monthly rate of 10% of the annual subscription.
